

Red Riding Hood: Romantic Fairy Tales

Red Riding Hood - Romantic Fairy Tales Series In this fantasy romance novella, Little Red Riding Hood is a happy-go-lucky girl who enjoys having the attention of the boys in the village. Then a stranger comes to the forest, a man known only as Wolf. To the dismay of the village boys, he enters the rivalry for her favors. Wolf has all the skills to make her want him. But no one in the village trusts Wolf, the alpha male whose intentions may not be good. Does Red have the strength to choose him in defiance of all her friends and family? Even more importantly, is he the right man for her? And what she should do about Grannys warnings? Anything can happen in a fantasy romance. Reviews for Carly Carsons books: 5 Angels from Fallen Angel Reviews (Rachel C.) for SCARLET AND THE SHERIFF: Ms. Carsons voice is light and flirty and she delivers an entertaining read, one well worth spending your money on. Romance Junkies 5 Blue Ribbons by Chrissy Dionne. SCARLET AND THE SHERIFF captured my attention from the very first page and never ceased to amuse me throughout the entire storyline. Torys off the cuff comments and unexpected actions had me giggling as I eagerly anticipated Rands reactions. I have to tell you for an upstanding sheriff hes full of surprises and definitely not lacking in creative ways to seduce Tory. If you like romance with alpha males, heres what Chris Mead at Romance Junkies says about the hero in ECLIPSE OF THE HEART: At times he is domineering and bossy. Underneath his rough exterior lies a very thoughtful and caring man who has suffered tremendous loss in his life. It is fun to watch him slowly open up to Amanda and experience love for the first time in years. 4.5 Blue Ribbons!
