The immovable object meets the irresistible force and something has to give. Danielle the librarian is a young, pretty, vibrant big beautiful woman and she's stuck in a rut. A lifetime of playing it safe has landed her a quiet job, a few good friends, and a series of romantic relationships that have been anything but fulfilling. She's always thought that sex was the world's most over-rated past time while keeping her deepest and darkest fantasies to herself. Until Justin. Justin may be the richest man on Earth; he's a master architect, engineer, and entrepreneur, with more money than could be spent in a dozen lifetimes. Wealth for its own sake no longer excites him, but then, since an untimely death, nothing does. Years of post-traumatic meditation and body-building kept him alive and physically fit, but left an aching void at the center of his being. Until Danielle.
