

The Brookfield Series Volume Two (Volume 2)

This is a collection of two of the stories in the Brookfield Series: Not Just Friends and Growing Love. NOT JUST FRIENDS Can the quiet bookstore owner land the playboy? Alyssa Duncans life revolves around books. If not for the fact the towns playboy Connor Phillips has a secret reading addiction, she most likely wouldnt be on his radar his friend. The two personalities just dont mesh or do they? She gets a chance to find out when a book-reading bet leads to dinner. Alyssa experiences a wide a range of emotions. Shes elated her beyond-friendship feelings seem returned, but his reputation precedes him. Is she just another gullible female in a string of women? As a relationship begins to develop with Connor, going past the limits of friendship, things grow muddled and complicated when an ex-boyfriend shows up in town and things arent what they seem. When the dust finally settles, will Alyssa find true love with someone or end up with just another friend?

GROWING LOVE Resigned to raising her baby without the father, Diane has everything figured out a substitute dad in place, a support system ready, and a new home to move into at least until the day he knocks on her door. Matt tried to let Diane go, tried to forget that she was carrying his child, but an ultrasound picture brings his walls tumbling down. He cant stay away any longer. But he hasnt always been perfect. Diane and he share a past full of deceit and lies and now they have only nine months to undo it all and become responsible adults. Its not only about them anymore. With complications in her pregnancy, Diane is forced to move back to Brookfield to be under the care of her family. All she has to do is keep her feelings for Matt in check and she can stick to her original plan raise the baby with Tom. But it seems Matt has a few choice words about that
