

The Cinderella Hour

The Cinderella hour. The midnight chime of magic and fairy tales. The hour of trust, of need, of love. An enchanted hour for those who dare ... Sixteen years ago, Snow Ashley Gable fled Chicago, running away from the kind of loss that comes with love and from a friendship that turned into betrayal. Now she is coming home, bringing her successful late-night radio talk show, The Cinderella Hour, to the Windy City. There are risks for Snow in returning home and risks and fears. The father she never knew. The mother who indulged in dangerous fantasies. The high school heiress who uncovered her greatest secret. And above all, most of all, there is Lucas Kilcannon, the troubled boy she loved, who will always love. Luke has never forgotten Snow or the love they shared. His fury that she ran away from their love, without warning or explanation, still burns deep and bright. He wants to know why Snow fled, and he intends to find out. He plans to see her, confront her, and insist that she tell him the truth. But it's a truth Snow doesn't fully know yet for there are aching secrets that have been in hiding, all these years, even from her. Praise for the Novels of Katherine Stone: Katherine Stone's characters live with the shadows over their lives and make the best of them, honorably, courageously and generously. We can be happier for knowing these people in the short run, and better for knowing them in the long run. Reviewers Choice Reviews on Island of Dreams Katherine Stone's magical touch makes A Midnight Clear a story for all seasons. Book Page Remarkably romantic and thoroughly enchanting. Rendezvous on Pearl Moon Stone's poetically expressive tale of intriguing characters and tough dilemmas is truly poignant and heartrending. Booklist on The Cinderella Hour An intriguing story ... beautifully written. Rendezvous on Island of Dreams Poignant ... Cass is an intrepid heroine, but it is Chase who wins our hearts when he refuses to allow Cass seeming betrayal to stop him from protecting his beloved.
